The Organization

Oregon Cascades West Council of Governments (OCWCOG) was formed in 1975 as a voluntary association of governments. Our members include the three counties of Linn, Benton, and Lincoln; 20 cities; the port of Newport; and the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians. Geographically, OCWCOG spans a Region from the crest of the Oregon Cascade Mountain Range to the Pacific Ocean. OCWCOG helps communities collaborate to solve problems and connects member governments, businesses, and individuals with a wide array of resources.

Based in Albany, Oregon, OCWCOG is governed by a Board of Directors, with one representative, usually an elected official, representing each member government.

As an Oregon intergovernmental entity, OCWCOG carries out a variety of local, State, and Federal programs, and can provide for, or on behalf of, its member governments any service that they are authorized to provide, such as helping businesses find appropriate capital, helping seniors and persons with disabilities plan for independent living, or coordinating local road improvement priorities. Most of its funding is provided by way of contracts to administer specific services.

OCWCOG employs approximately 160 staff. Non-management employees are represented by the Service Employees International Union (SEIU). OCWCOG maintains offices within each of our Counties, with the administrative staff and the majority of employees working out of the OCWCOG-owned Cascades West Center in Albany. The OCWCOG facility in Toledo is home to our Senior and Disability Services (SDS) staff that serves clients in Lincoln County. A leased space in Corvallis houses both SDS staff, Benton County Veterans Services, and staff that support the Corvallis Area Metropolitan Planning Organization, and community and economic development.

More information is available at OCWCOG's website, www.OCWCOG.org.

Make Our Valley Your Home

About the Region

Oregon Cascades West Council of Governments' (OCWCOG) member agencies are in the Willamette Valley and the Central Oregon Coast, located within Benton, Lincoln, and Linn Counties. The rugged Oregon seacoast, the high mountain passes of the Oregon Cascades, lush greenery, and the agricultural abundance of the Valley are an attractive addition to an education, employment, and cultural hub.

The Willamette Valley is located at the foot of the Oregon Coast Range and comprises some of the most fertile farmland in the Northwest. Stretching from just below the Oregon-Washington border to the city of Eugene, the Willamette Valley has long been considered the heartland of Oregon.

OCWCOG serves two Counties in the Valley – Benton and Linn which contain the Region's two biggest cities – Corvallis and Albany, Oregon State University, 18 smaller and diverse jurisdictions, including Lebanon and Philomath, and a multitude of housing, school, dining, and shopping options.

OCWCOG is located in the southern tip of the Valley and a one-hour drive to Portland and 40 minutes to Eugene – the Region's major airports and gateways; and, a twenty-minute drive to Salem, Oregon's State Capitol, where many of OCWCOG funding agencies and partners are located. The Southern Willamette Valley is best known for its agriculture and its innovation, which include a flourishing wine industry, innovation accelerators, a growing start-up culture, high-tech industry and access to tens of thousands of students, professionals, and entrepreneurs affiliated with Oregon State University, Samaritan Health Systems, Linn-Benton Community College, Hewlett Packard, the U.S. Department of Energy, and hundreds of other businesses, non-profits, agencies, and community partners.

The Willamette Valley is further divided into two distinct wine appellations, both known for rich and robust Pinot Noir and exceptional Pinot Gris, that is home to more than 200 wineries. Hazelnuts, raspberries, blackberries, and Christmas trees are also major exports of the Valley.

The Oregon Coast is proof of the Northwest's amazing diversity and its 350-mile coastline is anything but mundane. The Cities of Newport and Toledo anchor OCWCOG's presence in Lincoln County, and provide access to multiple working ports, harbors, and bays, and a historic logging and fishing culture. Oceanic and atmospheric research are conducted by the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) and Oregon State University among others – spinning off innovation and industry in fisheries, energy, resource management, and tourism.

The quaint communities in Lincoln County offer an amazing variety of restaurants, shops, museums, galleries, and a world-class aquarium. There is also an abundance of recreational activities to choose from, such as deep-sea fishing, whale watching, hiking and camping, kite flying, golfing, clam digging, and crabbing.

Housing and Walkable, Bike-Friendly Communities

How and where will you want to live? Do you prefer open space and lots of land? Or how about a cozy urban apartment? Would you prefer a home with a walk to the beach or to a trail in a National forest? Our Region offers all these housing options and more. Our biggest cities all have walkable and bicycle-friendly neighborhoods and adjoining suburban developments affording any price point or amenity. Our largest city, Corvallis, has the third, largest bike commute rate in the country. (It's also home to our Pedal Corvallis bikeshare program.)

The cities of our Region are connected by a public bus transportation system, allowing our residents to travel throughout the Region without a vehicle, easily and affordably.

Our Region offers large tract farm and ranch housing, coastal access communities, and mountain villages and towns. Each of these housing options is within an hour-drive of nearly every other community in our tri-County Region. A Coastal-to-Cascades commute for work, recreation, or easy transportation out of the Region (to Portland, Eugene, or beyond) effortless.

Schools and Education

Our Region is home to some of the best schools in the State in all categories – pre-school to doctorate. We consistently rank high in academic categories in public schools and have several well ranked private and parochial schools, as well.

Our major research and training universities and colleges also attract top notch students and world-renowned faculty. Founded in 1868, Oregon State University is the State's Land Grant University and is one of only two universities in the U.S. to have Sea Grant, Space Grant, and Sun Grant designations.

Linn-Benton Community College houses more than 7,000 students attending full-time, making LBCC one of the largest community colleges in Oregon, with over eighty programs and certificates.

The Oregon Coast Community College (serving Lincoln County) serves 1,900 students, with over 200 courses, focuses on business, applied science, and general studies.

Entertainment and Recreation

Our Region is unparalleled for access to the full range of winter and summer sports and recreation, from wine tasting to hiking, there is something for everyone in our Region.

Oregon boasts the longest ski season in North America, where the slopes open as early as October and continue into April or May. Our Regions' closest resort is Hoodoo. Hoodoo Ski Area offers more than 800 acres of terrain, 34 runs, five lifts, and one of the largest tubing parks in the West.

In the spring, summer, and fall you can camp or hike the Cascades Mountains, smaller County and City trails, tube, paddle, and raft, as well as fish (Chinook Salmon, Steelhead, and Dungeness Crab), hunt, or go birding. Our Region has one of the largest systems of hiking trails in the Country – Mary's Peak, which is also the highest point in Oregon's Coast Range – all in our own backyard. Mary's Peak often ranks highest in use by bike riders. All our biking and hiking trails are well-maintained and used frequently for commute and recreation pleasure.

Coastal entertainment includes whale watching, deep sea fishing, and coastal festivals. Our wine, beer, and food industries also have numerous festivals, tastings, and samplings. Forty minutes south of our Region, the City of Eugene hosts the only North American Truffle Festival annually.

The award-winning vineyards in and around our Region offer tours and tastings to satisfy the most discerning palate; more than 700 of them are bottling Oregon's world-famous pinot noirs, pinot gris and rieslings. But there's more to the Willamette Valley than its wine. There are also acres of farms raising the organic livestock and produce sold at the local restaurants and markets you'll find in the historic towns here — all of which are connected by miles of cycling and hiking routes.

There are enough fields of flowers, winding rivers, covered bridges, hot springs, and scenic waterfalls to fill a month of Sunday drives. Explore the rugged and productive Coast and the ancient obsidian flows of the Cascade Range in the same day. There's rarely a weekend without a rodeo or a craft brew fest.

According to the Oregon Values and Beliefs Project, on the whole, Oregonians value the State's natural beauty and abundant outdoor recreation opportunities. In their own words, the residents of the State describe what they value about living in Oregon as the "friendliness of the people," "Oregon's climate," "Natural landscapes," "cleanness of air and water," "green landscape," "forests and mountains," and "open spaces."
